

MYTHS VS. FACTS

The Truth About Private Foundations

While private foundations are considered the “gold standard” of charitable giving vehicles, there are many misconceptions about setup and management. Let’s get down to the bottom of these four common myths.

MYTH

You need to allocate $3-5 MILLION to afford a foundation.

FACT

67% of all foundations have less than $1 MILLION in assets.

By leveraging our infrastructure and expertise, it’s practical to establish a new foundation with less than $1 million initial funding.

MYTH

They are difficult and expensive to set up.

FACT

We can form one in JUST 3 DAYS for a low, flat fee.
